Memories are made to last. They keep the past alive and capture life at its best (and worst). We will always hold dear in our hearts people and events, countless memories and unforgettable moments. We recall and reminisce of best friends, loved ones, boyfriends and girlfriends, teachers, mentors, and the various people that have had an impact on our lives. Looking back, we can see how certain people or moments have changed forever. The past is not something you can just forget. We take for granted the precious time we have, and before you know it, moments have passed you by. Through our memories and many experiences, and through the people along the way, we have become who we are today. If everything was taken away, we would find memories at the root of all we are. Without these experiences and memories, we would be left with nothing. This yearbook is comprised of people, experiences, events, moments, and a collection of memories we will never forget. This book, like our lives, is a sum of our collected memories. From the past to the present, and forever continuing into the future, this is Our Story.

FOR REFERENCE ONLY

A photograph of a snow-covered sign for Paramus High School. The sign is white with a black border and is mounted on a wooden post. The top part of the sign reads "PARAMUS HIGH SCHOOL" in black capital letters. Below this, the words "OUR STORY" are printed in large, bold, black capital letters. Underneath "OUR STORY" is the phrase "Once upon a time..." in a smaller, italicized font. The sign is set against a background of a red brick building and bare trees. The ground is covered in snow, and there are some snow-covered bushes in the foreground.

OUR STORY

"Once upon a time..."

... in the borough of Paramus, there were many children who all began on the same page. They all started their first day of school sharing the same worries of not making friends and not having fun. They walked into a school of strangers. They had no idea that these strangers were the ones who would be bonded together with them for the rest of their lives. These children had yet to realize their capabilities and the extent of their potential. They were oblivious to what the future had in store for them.

The first day of elementary school was the day that began the rest of their lives. Although in different schools, they all shared the same interests and ideas. They grew up playing with My Little Pony and He-Man. "New Kids on the Block" was the music of the time, and cartoons were great to watch at any time of the day. For some reason Looney Tunes was always funny, no matter how many times Wile E. Coyote fell off the cliff.

The elementary school halls got old, and it was time to move on to the "big halls" of East Brook and West Brook. It was time for middle school. A time when "Fantastic Fridays" and nights out at the Elks club were the cool things to do on the weekends, other than wander around the mall.

As these kids moved on to Paramus High, they truly began to grow up. They walked into the halls together as freshmen. Their biggest fears consisted of getting to class on time without getting lost or running into a senior. Freshmen Friday was unforgettable, but before they knew it, they were the ones giving freshmen directions to the "school pool."

The halls of Paramus High hold all the memories and stories of the past four years. This is where best friends walked down the hall, arm in arm. This is where seniors rushed back to class after their short, off campus lunch break. Friendships were set in stone, secrets were told, and hearts were broken. These halls are the witnesses to every experience shared among these children. They hold the heart and soul of Paramus High School students. Paramus High School shaped these children into adults.

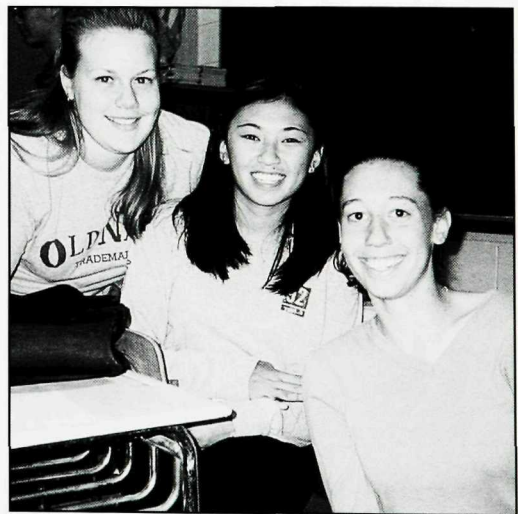

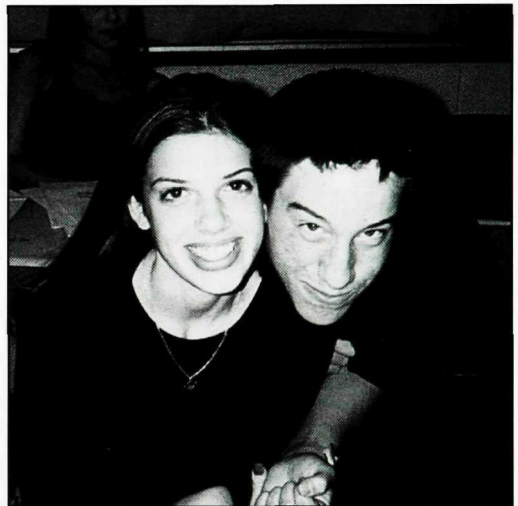

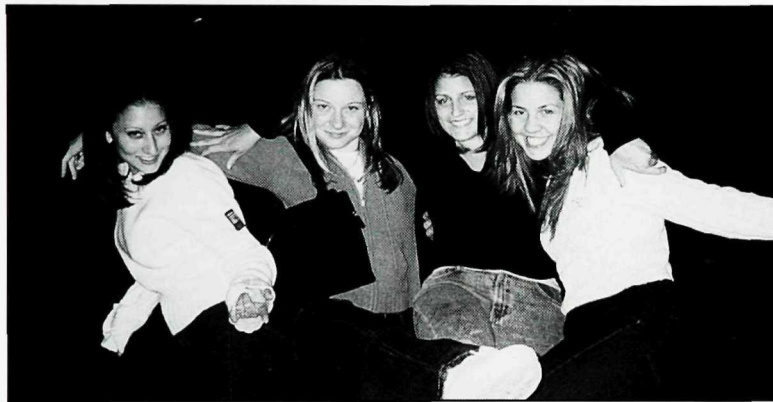

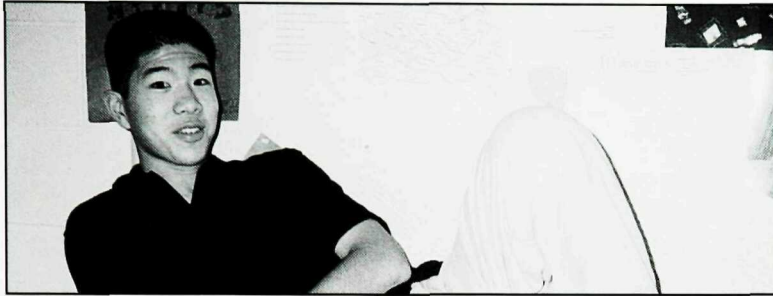

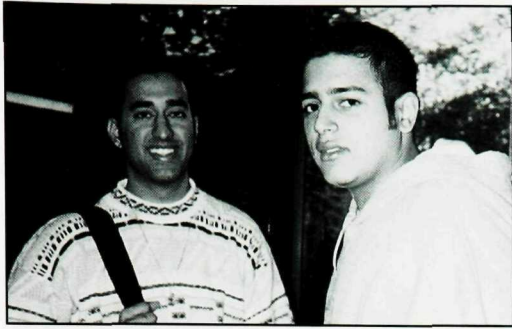

These children spent the past eighteen years growing up, growing stronger and, most of all, growing together. Graduation Day will make a new chapter in their lives that may or may not be ready to be explored. On this day, they will walk together as a class for the very last time. When they walk down the aisle ready to receive their diplomas, they will look back on all these years together and the memories that only they could share. These adults will never forget the teachers that shaped their minds or the friendships that changed their lives. We ARE these children. WE ARE THE CLASS OF 2001, AND THIS IS OUR STORY.

When We Were Young

You are a child of the 80's if ...

Snap bracelets were always getting you in trouble at school.
If you ever wrote with a Squiggle Writer Pen
You played with "My Little Ponies."
You've ever read Nancy Drew, The Hardy Boys, The Boxcar Children, The Babysitters Club or Sweet Valley High.
You know all the words to "Ice Ice Baby."
You remember the New Kids On The Block.
You wanted to be on Star Search.
You can remember what Michael Jackson looked like before he had plastic surgery.
You wore one of those t-shirt rings or a scrunchi on one side of your shirt during your youth.
You were styling with your french rolled pants.
You wore multiple pairs of socks in the middle of the summer just so you could be "hip."
You had puff painted your own shirt at least once.
Cabbage Patch Kids!
The Cosby Show, Alf, or Out of This World was prime time television?
You remember when TGIF first got started?
You know the profound meaning of "Wax on, Wax off"
You were upset when She-ra, Princess of Power, and He-Man canceled.
You can remember watching Full House and Saved by the Bell for endless hours, back when they were new episodes.
You have seen at least 10 episodes of Fraggle Rock.
You hold a special place in your heart for "Back to the Future."
You know where to go if you "wanna go where everybody knows your name."
You remember Madonna in her cone stage.
You knew "The Artist" when he was humbly called "Prince."
You even wore fluorescent-neon clothing ...
You remember when ATARI was a state of the art video game system.
You remember M.C. Hammer.
You can still sing the rap to "Fresh Prince of Bel Air."
How many of you can recite the theme to Duck tales?
You owned a pair of L.A. Gear, Keds, or Converse tennis shoes.
You carried your lunch to school in a Gremlins or an ET lunchbox.
You have ever pondered why Smurfette was the ONLY female smurf.
And how come Baby Smurf never grew up ...
My Little Pony, Gummy Bears, Transformers, You can't do that on Television, Nozzles, KIDS Incorporated, Captain Kangaroo, Double Dare, and Hey Dude are familiar to you.
You ever had a Swatch Watch or a Doonie and Burke
You actually spent countless hours trying to perfect the "CareBear Stare"
You had Wonder Woman or Superman underoos.
You thought that Transformers were more than meets the eye.
You spent hours in the basement building and re-building Lego cities.
Do Popples ring a bell?
Big wheels and bicycles with streamers were the way to go.
With your playschool record player you sang back up to Debbie Gibson or Paula Abdul.
"Party like it's 1999" seemed SO far away!!
You stayed up all night listening to Teddy Rupskin
Can we say Trapper Keeper?
Can you tell me how to get to Sesame Street?!!!
If you still have a crimper in your bathroom drawer.
If you remember singing Amy Grant's "Baby, Baby."
You watched original episodes of the Muppet Show.

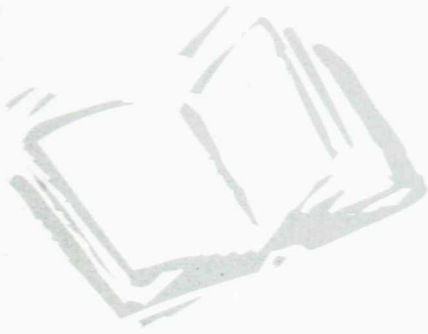

You had more than one Star Wars action figure.
You loved your pink jeans, black stretch pants and big loop earrings.
You wanted to travel through time on Quantum Leap.
You had at least one Hypercolor shirt.
If you learned how to spell mouse from the Mickey Mouse Club theme song.
You used to wear bright pink slip-ons and jelly shoes.
The Wonder Years was a part of your daily lifestyle.
You had Hotwheel races down your street during the block party.
When MTV was all about Rock Hard videos and BIG hair (first aired in 1981!!!)
Pee Wee's Play House?
Fanny Packs?
Did you keep your hot pink lipstick in a caboodle?
You could not get enough hair spray on those bangs?
How many trolls did you have?
Does "Heroes in a half shell" mean anything to you?
Everything was rad, totally awesome, and tubular!!!
You remember when the original nintendo was the best 100 you could spend?
You loved to play with your glow-in-the-dark plastic jewelry?
You envied Rainbow Bright's fashion sense.
You remember when there was no Barney.
You remember Zoobily Zoo?
When Jammin out to Ace of Base was cool ...
When Tinker Bell Make-up was the latest in cosmetics.
When "Apples" were the coolest fastest computers around ...
You regularly referred to people as "Dude."
If you hear the song "I heard it through the Grapevine" and you think of the Dancing Raisins.
You still want to be a member of the Go-Go's.
Jem gave Barbie a run for her money.
You still can't believe that Milli Vanilli was deceiving you all that time ...
You love that 'Bill & Ted' lingo about as much as that Valley lingo. Like, totally fer sure, dude.
You've ever told small children of the days when there were REAL toys, not all this fake plastic junk.
You thought a Commodore 64 was the highest technology available.
You wanted to be a Goonie.
Remember when Beavis and Butthead were on Liquid Television.
You got up early Saturday mornings so you'd know the word of the day & "Don't forget to scream REAL loud when you hear it!"
Four words: "I'll get you Gadget."
You were and are a Toys 'R' Us kid.
If you remember when Mr. Snuffelupagus was only seen by Big Bird.
Remember when girls just wanted to have fun?
My Buddy or Skip too.
You knew who to call.

If you can identify with at least half of these, you are a child of the 80's.

The Never Ending Story

Seniors ...

It didn't hit you when you woke up for your last first day of school.
It didn't hit you as you walked into school for the first time as an official senior.
It didn't hit you when you attended your last football game.
It didn't hit you when you attended your last sports practice or played in your last game.
It didn't hit you as you filled out countless college applications.
It didn't hit you as you wrote that generic essay that you tried to use for all your applications.
It didn't hit you when your college friends returned for Christmas break and gave you all their advice.
It didn't hit you as you celebrated New Year's Eve with the friends you have known since childhood.
It didn't hit you when you cheered during the last Big Show.
It didn't hit you when everyone made the "Big Decision" of where they would be going to college and what they would be majoring in and you were still undecided.
You didn't feel it when you were having the time of your life during your last Spring Break!
When June finally came around, you realized that it was your last Prom, but you didn't really feel it when you were there having the time of your life.
You will begin to realize it at Graduation when you look around and realize that you will never see half of these people ever again.
You will see more of it over the summer when everyone is getting their roommates, class schedules, and going to orientation.
It still won't have fully hit you when you are sitting in your room packing up the past 18 years of your life, laughing with your best friends about all the stupid things you have done.
You might feel it the morning you leave for college as that is the last time you will see your room, your parents, and your best friend for three months.
It will finally hit you when you are sitting in your dorm room with a perfect stranger that you will have to live with for the next year. College will be a lot of fun. But in the meantime, jump at every opportunity you get to spend with the friends you made in high school. Our high school years are brief but the memories we build are forever.

Family Living Weddings

Wedding cakes, beautiful decorations, and great music filled the classroom. It was the day every senior was waiting for. The end of family living and the day of "The Wedding." After 2 and a half months of classes about drugs, alcohol, and sex, the seniors finally had something to celebrate.

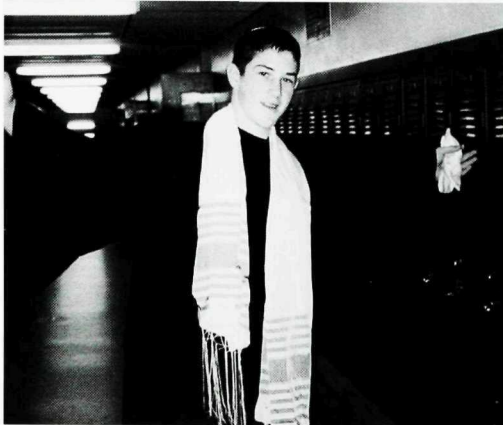

Before the wedding itself, a bride, groom, bridesmaids, and ushers were selected. There was even a flower girl. Of course you couldn't forget the wedding coordinator, the one who put the entire thing together. It was all set, all they had waiting for them was the "Big Day."

Everyone was dressed in their best, music filled the hallways, and happiness spread throughout the school. Pictures were taken and memories were made. After the vows were exchanged, the cake was eaten, and the decorations were taken down. Family Living was officially over. Every senior left that classroom that day with a lesson on life that will never be forgotten.

Let's Get Ready to Rumble

Football ... a new beginning at PHS. This year the football team had one of their best seasons ever, winning four out of their ten games. Senior captains Michael Clark, Kevin Lovell, and Rob Thompson led the Spartans in this successful season. For the first three months of school the football players, marching band, and cheerleaders lit up George W. Hodgins stadium with all their spirit and hard work. Other highlights of the season included the Athlete of the Week award, given to T.J.

Lyons by the Bergen Record and Michael Sancilio as runner-up for the very same honor. These juniors are sure to lead our Spartans into another great season next year.

Cheerleading

All Psyched Up

Under the direction of Coach Tara Boss, the Spartan Cheerleaders had a dynamic football cheering season. The cheerleaders started preparing for the fall season last summer. They also attended cheering camp to help fine-tune their cheers. The girls worked hard to choreograph their own half-time routine as well.

After many years, the cheerleaders were finally able to get new uniforms. The team received new sweaters, shells, and skirts. This year's squad worked hard to improve school spirit throughout the faculty and student body. Their performance on the field at games, at spirit day, and at the bonfire showed this cheering squad's determination.

Captains Lauren Pizzi, Erin Jankowski, and Lauren La Verghetta; and cheerleaders Jamie Schraer, Megan Mulligan, Rachel Paul, Laura Caruso, Marissa Down, Cassie Esposito, Christie Johnson, Lauren Shatkin, Julie Albanese, Taryn Tidwell, Jackie Jones, Alissa Dwarkin, and Katie Day; all helped to change the climate at Paramus High School.

A special thanks goes to Coach Tara Boss and the Spartan Football Cheerleaders for their hard work, endless practice, and dedication to make this year's cheering season one of the best ever.

BOYS' SOCCER

going for the goal

The Paramus Spartans Boys Soccer Team celebrated a spectacular 2000 season. They opened the season with a few disappointing losses and ties to some mediocre teams. The boys showed a lot of character, however, by not allowing that to dictate the remainder of the season. They pulled out of their slump about 5 games into the season and, after a demoralizing loss to Montclair, decided that they were not playing up to their potential. They went into Bergen Catholic, one of the top teams in the area, and grinded out a huge overtime victory that had a lot of people start giving the organization the respect it deserved. The high point of the season was when Paramus marched into previously unbeaten Fort Lee, on their home field, and stole the show with a win knocking them out of the County Tournament. The season ended with a disappointing loss to Bergen Tech, a team that the boys had already beaten, in the first round of the State Tournament.

Senior captain Dean DeKranis, along with junior captains Mike Vinciguerra, Dan Cypher, and Brian Newton, led the team. Other notable seniors on the team were Jonathan Siu, Bob McQuade, and Alex Ko. Sophomores Ilyas Tasci, Rocco Francica, and junior Ben Lee accounted for the majority of the goals, while Josh Knopf and Brian Mone contributed some major game deciding scores of their own. The defense, which was the backbone of the team, had no one leader. It consisted of goaltender Dan Cypher, and an inseparable Paul Windt, Dean DeKranis, and Brian Newton. The upcoming season should prove to be even more productive and exciting with so many of the same faces coming back!

Girls' Soccer

Just for Kicks

Every August many girls show up at the tree near the soccer field waiting for the arrival of Coach Vic Dipasquale. Here he reads the names of the girls who are eligible to practice. After this is complete, they make their way up to the track. This is the starting point for the three-mile run. After the three-mile run, many girls decide that soccer is not the sport for them and they never return. For others, the track is the starting point for not only the three-mile run but also their soccer career. For thirty-one letter winners this year, the three-mile run was the start of a wonderful season. Nine seniors, who have run the three-mile run eight times now and never gave up, will be graduating in June with four varsity soccer letters. These nine players have been part of the "best lady Spartans soccer team ever!"

Each year, no matter if it was individual or as a team, goals were reached. The 1998 season they were league champs, the first ever for PHS Girls Soccer, and county finalists. The 1999 season they were defending League Champs and had 11 girls get all-league honors. The 2000 season, the last for these nine seniors was a memorable season, on and off the field. The end result was having 10 girls get all-league honors, four girls all-state honors, and nine girls with all-county honors.

Bonding was something the team was very fond of. Not only did they play together six days a week, but they hung out off the field as well. This closeness of theirs helped them to achieve their goals. Not only was the varsity team made up of upperclassmen and five sophomores but had 13 freshmen cheering them on.

As two of the nine graduating seniors, we as well as the other seven, would just like to thank Head Coach Vic Dipasquale, assistant coaches Glen Houg, Jim Shenberg, and Stephanie Murri for being our most loyal supporters and helping us mature on and off the field. Even though they were not coaches, they were teachers that came to every game, thank you Mr. Marlin, Mr. Young, and Mr. Cervino for your encouragement and cheers. We would also like to thank all of the remaining girls' soccer players and wish them good luck in the future.

Endurance, speed, and agility are what describe the 2001 Spartan Cross Country team. The team this year was full of young energy and lots of underclassmen and upperclassmen talent. Veteran runners like Megan Judge, Dathon Valdes, Haresh Naringrekar, and Bryan Senti led the underclassmen to a strong season. Coach Ortiz and Coach Goodman headed the successful team. The season was full of success stories and personal bests. They ran hard and in the end came out at the front of the pack.

Spike it!

There is a lot to say about the 2000 Paramus High School varsity volleyball team. They've got it all... talent, heart, energy, and a flair for keeping their fans on the edge of their seats. It's been an exciting season.

PHS Volleyball 2000 began in August. From the moment they walked into the gym during pre-season, the team knew that they had what it takes to become a championship team. Knowledgeable coaches, a talented team and a core group of very experienced seniors lead the way to success. Five of the eight starters have started varsity since their sophomore year, and amazingly the same eight starters received all-league honors. Kimberly Farhat, Crystal Sullivan, Tiffany Farhat, Marcela Gomez, Ellyn Charters and Lora Yankauskas were all chosen 1st team All-League. And, Holly Tedesco and Rachel Andriotis were 2nd team All-League selections.

Senior Kimberly Farhat, three-year varsity setter quarterbacked the team on the court, calling plays and setting up the offense. Outside hitters Marcela Gomez and Tiffany Farhat, both three-year starters, propelled the team to victory with their strong hits and phenomenal passing game. Seniors Crystal Sullivan and Ellyn Charters added to the talent and experience on the court. Sullivan was an expert defensive player and passer, while Charters brought blocking to the defense. Senior Holly Tedesco sparked the team with her aggressive serves and solid defense. Junior Rachel Andriotis lit up the court with consistent hitting, setting, and all around play. Sophomore Lora Yankauskas was a powerful hitter and great blocker.

Over the past three years, the team has grown together both on and off the court. Striving to unite as one, the girls planned and enjoyed team outings to dinner, ice-skating and to a haunted house. On the court, the team strived for success - winning the league championship and maintaining a rank of Number One in the State for part of the season.

Additionally, the team won the Paramus Catholic Paladin Classic, the second team ever from New Jersey to win this Prestigious tournament. Here, the girls beat a series of New York teams who play together year-round. The competition was tremendous, but Paramus triumphed, and walked away with a championship plaque and mountain of pride.

The 2000 Paramus High School Volleyball team truly left their mark. Through dedication, hard work, determination and desire, these girls became championship athletes and most of all, friends. Now that the season is over, the girls can look back at the mountain they've climbed to be number one, and cherish their success.

Girls' Tennis

for the love of

Tennis isn't considered a team sport, but in Paramus, the players and the two coaches are supportive of each other. For years, Coaches Jack Weaver and Bill McNamara have guided Paramus tennis to its fullest potential. With Weaver's optimistic perspective and McNamara's encouraging coaching style, this season has been one of our best.

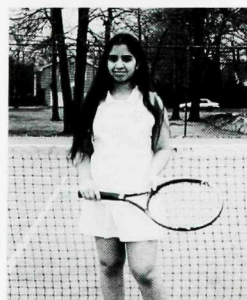

During the season we had practices everyday after school. Even during the off season, Coach McNamara had practices every Sunday at the Maywood Tennis Club, and it is during this time that players are able to improve the most.

Varsity players include Captain Karina Hon, seniors Viral Bhatt, Rayna Kumar, Loren Lee, juniors Erica Lee; Mija Hessel, and sophomores Heather Finkelstein, Minki Jung, Caitlin Beasty, Jee Chung, and Saori Namaita. JV players include: Kelly Shukman, Kari Gerber, Nancy Aris, Jennifer Solomon, Michelle Jun, Lauren Domb, Jessica Chin, Chandni Mody, Kushboo Shah, and Jenny Choo.

Tennis will always be a lasting memory for us all. We will always remember the practices we had and how much we learned from one another. We will always remember the times when we would hit the balls out into the parking lot, and watch in fearful anticipation, hoping that no cars would be damaged! We learned that winning isn't everything, as long as you played your best. And this was a life lesson, even though we played a competitive sport that often got the better of us.

WRESTLING

power and grace

It started ten years ago, as four kids walked into the "little" gym. As the years went on, these four kids recruited their friends to join the program and a team was assembled. By freshman year, three out of the original four cracked the varsity lineup while the rest of the wrestlers made a JV team that could have competed on the varsity level. Eventually as seniors everyone had a spot on the varsity lineup and contributed to the team's success.

We came in knowing that this was our year and we would not settle for anything less than three championships. Losing was not an option. Nobody was beating us at home in front of our fans, and Jethro always made sure we were ready. On the road we were out to avenge losses from the previous year, and we did so in grand style by blowing out Bloomfield and Hackensack and beating Bergen Catholic by 11 points. All our goals were met as we became the number one ranked team in Bergen County, repeated as league champs and reclaimed the district title that has eluded us for the past two years. We were even ranked as high as 18th in the state mainly due to the exceptional balance we had by putting a good wrestler out at every weight class.

Our success could be directly attributed to work ethic, coaching, and a burning desire to win. Throughout our life we have learned to wrestle by one saying: "Dedication Produces Champions." And in this case, it has.

Girls' Basketball

Hoops and Dreams

The 2000-2001 season of girls' basketball was a rebuilding season for the team. It was a young team, without the benefit of seniors, who are usually the greatest strength on a high school team. It was not an easy year for the Lady Spartans, but it was one which taught many important lessons about the game.

The team practiced hard and took each game as a learning experience. Their season ended on a high note, with a victory over Wayne Hills. All their hard work finally paid off. The team looks forward to next year's season, where they hope to use the lessons from this year to be more successful. They will return for the 2001-2002 basketball season with more experience and with the motivation to pull their skills together and have a winning season.

Boys' Basketball

Basketball Diaries

The 2000-2001 basketball season was truly one to remember. With lots of teamwork, and a strong sense of camaraderie on their side, the Paramus Spartans embarked on a remarkable season. The strong bond amongst the players allowed the team to work well together. The team spirit was constantly kept high in spite of their occasional "not so perfect" games. The 2000-2001 basketball season was truly an interesting and educational experience.

The boys' basketball season started out with an uphill battle. The team's first challenge was an away game against the Raiders of Nutley. Never did the thought of losing cross anyone's mind. As a basketball team wanted to start off the season on a good note, The Spartans kept calm and worked hard to get the victory, even with a late spurge by the Raiders. The first game set the tempo for the rest of the season. Although the Spartans lost key games to top teams in the county, such as Teaneck and Ridgewood, the guy's spirits never dwindled. Their hard work and good sportsmanship were held high throughout the entire season.

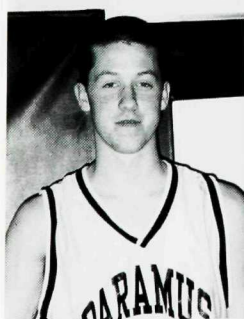

This year marked a year that consisted of mainly seniors. With our captain, senior, and one of the top scores of Bergen County, Keith Macri, our season looked to be bright. As always, the six seniors, Billy Gavigan, Michael Clark, Chris Lue, Attiq Amjad, and Ilan Danan were the backbone to the team. Juniors T.J. Lyons, Andy Berenberg, and Dami Ayeni, stepped up all throughout the season. Sophomore Ralph Davis displayed a unique talent which surely will make him a focal point in the season to come. Although the Spartans were mighty on their own, Coach Bill Whitney had a helpful hand in making "the boys" into an excellent team. He persuaded the fact that defense wins games, and we took that knowledge and became one of the more powerful defensive teams within the league.

As the first team of the new millennium and also a team of charisma, the 2000-2001 Paramus Spartan basketball team and season was surely one to remember. We wish the graduating seniors luck in all their future endeavors. And, for those juniors who will step up next year, we wish you the best of luck as well!

TRACK

run Spartans run

I could not let the winter track season pass on by
Without jotting down a few reasons why
Every athlete was special to me
And helped contribute to the team, as you will see:

Meghan was our most well rounded athlete
We never knew in which event she would compete
The pentathlon demonstrated all her talents her speed, her strength, and even her balance.

Dana loved running in zero degree weather
She and the distance team would often come together
To inform me of their slogan proposition
"We love to run, but this is no fun ... let us in!"

Coach Graves named Crystal "most consistent"
Her form improved much (although she won't admit it)
She tried her best and gave her all
(Although her first love is volleyball).

Kalina, well, what can I say?
She made us smile each and every day
Although the shot put is not her claim to fame
We look forward to her accomplishments in the outdoor game.

Even though Dean specialized in the 800
meter run
He decided one day to have some fun
And help us out in the shot put relay
He had great form (for practicing just 1 day).

This excellent shot putter often confused fantasy and reality
"Are you serious?" was his skeptical mentality
Matt's jokes always came in handy
But remember to never try his tuna fish candy!

As unrelated as these two sports may seem
Maracela's additions to the winter track team
Showed that a good athlete can play more than one sport
Either throwing the shot or on the volleyball court.

The Coach's Award for the winter season
Was given to this athlete for a very good reason
Dathon, our hurdler, continued to improve
And this spring he's in position to make his move.

Jeff and Hubert were great assets to the distance team
It was amazing that they didn't run out of team
Between managing time for academics and track
In neither one did they ever lack.

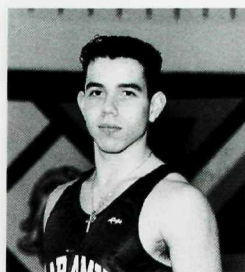

As the author of this poem I just want to say
It has been a pleasure to train with you each and every day
Whether we won or lost is not the most important thing
But how our efforts prepared us for what the future will bring.

Bowling

Striking their way to Victory

When you think of winter sports, many things come to mind. Some people would say skiing, wrestling, basketball, track and ice hockey, but how many people would say bowling? Four years ago I too laughed when I saw bowling as an option for a winter sport. Now, I realize how competitive and skillful you must be to be a member of the bowling team.

This year was Paramus High's best record for bowling for both boys and girls. Second year head Coach Joe Piro smiles when he thinks of the accomplishments of the team. The girl's team ended up in third place just behind Ridgewood and the boys finished in the top five. Coach Piro was optimistic in the beginning of the season and was pleased when the varsity squad accomplished their goals. Senior Stacy Calhoun received 1st team all-league honors with an average of 154. Besides missing half the season due to an injury senior captain Lauren Meyer received honorable mention all-league for the third straight season with an average of 153. Sophomore Jessica Chin and freshman Debbie Meyer were the other two starters of the varsity squad with averages of 134 and 136. Two other girls who put time and effort into varsity bowling this season were senior Heather Contreni and sophomore Danielle Rath. Four-year senior letter winner Dan Kyritz anchored the boy's varsity team. Dan received 1st team all-league honors with a 184 average. Bryan Sweet the only other senior also had a successful season earning his second varsity letter in three years. Junior RJ Andres and sophomores Rob Lafleur and Ilyas Tas-cui also helped these two seniors to have a wonderful last season. The five graduating seniors can look back on the past four years and see how much we matured, improved and grew as both an individual and as a team.

I am sure the most memorable statement Coach Piro ever delivered was the one on March 8th, 2001 at the letter ceremony. "No matter of the record there is one thing that remains true of the bowling team and that is that we have more strikes than the baseball team, less fouls than the basketball team and more pins than the wrestling team."

Dan Kyritz, Heather Contreni, Stacy Calhoun, Jessica Chin, Coach Piro, Debra Meyer, Ilyas Taski, Lauren Meyer, Raymundo Andres

Ice, Ice, Baby

This year Spartan ice men finished the season at 19-5, 2nd place in the National C Division, runner up in the National C Cup and with a round of 16 finish in the state playoffs. The team was lead by captains, Mike Williams, Chang Lin, Gerard Avillo, and Marc Chaanine. Other senior ice men include James Rothstein, Anil Nankani, Kevin Lovell, Rob Thompson, John Gramuglia and Anthony Peros. These seniors finish their high school hockey careers with a record of 59-11-5, 25 shutouts, 2 division championships, a Handchen Cup Championship, Ice House Christmas Tournament, round of 8 State Quarterfinalist and 2 round of 16 state finished.

This group of young men have played together for four years and have moved from being ranked #86th in the State of New Jersey to being #5 ranked team this year. Many of these players were former roller hockey players that came into the ice-hockey program at its inception four years ago. They have truly left their mark not only on Paramus and Bergen County, but in New Jersey, as well, and have become one of the more elite public school teams in the state.

a winning season

We can remember a time when we watched ball after ball sail over the fence, wondering when it was our time to shine on the diamond. Well about four years later it is finally coming true. As we watch ourselves become young men, we realize the valuable lesson that baseball has taught us, the friendships we have made, and the skills we have finally obtained. There have been countless times of extra running and more sweat to make up for the years of mistakes and errors.

As most of us take the field for one last season, we hope to come off the field victorious. We challenge each other, but at the same time encourage one another to be the better player, to go the extra mile. As a team we hope to capture a league championship for the first time in 5 years, and make at least a great showing in both the State and County Tournaments. Whether we do come off the field as champions, or hope most of us win our first elusive team championship, we know that no matter what happens, the tears, sweat, and friendships that baseball has forged are forever ours.

Now or Never

If you go up to a softball player and ask her what she expects for the season, you will probably get three words out of her mouth, "now or never". These words are very significant for the ten seniors on the team — there are no more second chances. We are drilling this saying into our heads and have it printed on the back of our T-shirts to motivate us to play to the best of our abilities.

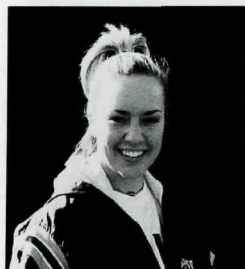

Even though we lost two outstanding outfielders from last season, we are still expecting to be stronger than ever. We have twelve returning letter winners from last year, seven returning starters, and ten returning seniors. Our team is led this year by senior captains Christine Menasian, and Courtney Rejent. The strong point for the Lady Spartans this year is our infield — Courtney Rejent, Tiffany and Kim Farhat, and Kristin McNerney. Returning pitcher, Nicole Farrissey and returning all-state catcher, Christine Menasian, are two of our keys to success this year. In the outfield this season is Lauren Meyer, Jackie Thompson, Kim Edone, and Holly Tedesco.

As a team we look forward to our annual Florida spring training trip, where we not only practice for our season, but we also bond and create memories we will always treasure. We will return from this trip with greater confidence, team unity, and a clearer sense of our motto "now or never". We will work toward our goal of being triple crown champions and, as seniors, play our last high school game in June fighting for the state championship. This is our year, a year of champions — it's now or never.

Spring Track

Going the Distance

The Paramus spring track team has made a name for themselves this year as one of the teams to beat. This year many new faces have come onto the track, as well as the return of most of last year's veterans. New additions to the coaching staff, M. Carol Whitney and Mr. Kevin Graves, have also given the team a new boost. This year seemed to be the year that the teams as a whole were to improve and show that Paramus track was one of the best programs. Senior Dathon Valdez is one of the fastest boy hurdlers and sprinters Paramus has ever seen. Senior Meghan Judge is triumphant in the high jump, hurdles, and discus. Carol Ann Bullen and Katie Tucker set the standards in distance and Seniors Kristan Malacrida, Kalina Carlson, Marcela Gomez, Crystal Sullivan, and Heather Contrini lead the girls weight team to many medals. Senior Matt Terng, Junior Andy Berengerg, and Junior Hector Deagear are the new triple threat in the shot put. Seniors Jason Bediones, Will Onwuka and Kevin Lovell bring in points for the team in discus. In the javelin is the very successful tag team of Senior Robby Thompson and Junior Will Kochis. On the Junior Varsity level Senior Manesh Dadlani also leads the squad to many victories. The new age of long, triple, and high jumpers, known as "Jumpers Delight," is composed of Junior Jason Andres and Sophomore Ralph Davis. Senior Robby Thompson and Junior Russ Damis are our two very successful pole vaulters.

This year the team was stronger than ever, both physically and spiritually. The relationship we had was unimaginable. We were all there for each other when we needed encouragement and praise. Whether it would be getting a record distance or time, or being told to hang in there and turn it up, we all cared for each other as if we were a family. The Senior class of 2001 hopes the classes after us are blessed with fun and successful years. Our thoughts are with them always.

Golf

A Tale of Two Clubs

Everybody out on the green! The team had enormous popularity this year. They have earned high reputation and are becoming well known in Paramus. Coach Barnes and Coach Nardo are out on the green of Paramus Golf Club with the team almost every day. The right decision on who will be playing is never easy to make. The time all put in is why the team is doing so well.

Paramus golf has come a long way. Led by three seniors, Bob McQuade, Rushi Patel, Steve Bursiar, with the help of junior Mike Vinciguerra they are ripping through the greens. The upperclassmen on the team have led the team into a very strong early season. As the season goes on, the Spartans will show just how strong and powerful they are. The underclassmen are holding their ground this year making it possible for the success of the team.

Working hard at practice has made the Spartans become the precise team that they are. Talent and a lot of hard work is what the golf team is all about. They all should be proud of themselves for their accomplishments. The dedication of this team and coaches is something to commend. The 2001 Spartan golf team is off to a great start and will have a great end to a fabulous season.

Christmas Carol

"Humbug!" was the word all around the PHS auditorium this December 2000. The production of "A Christmas Carol: written by Charles Dickens was performed December 8, 9, and 10th by the PHS Drama Club, Spotlights. This timeless classic is the story of a rich old miser, Ebenezer Scrooge, (played by sophomore Justin Long), who hates Christmas. He is a very cheap and low paying employer to his clerk, Bob Cratchit (played by freshman, Jonathan Bullwinkle). The night of Christmas Eve, Scrooge is haunted by the ghost of his old partner, Jacob Marley, (sophomore Keith Mirowitz) who informs Scrooge he will be haunted by three spirits: The Spirit of Christmas Past (junior Kim Hausler), the Spirit of Christmas Present (sophomore Daniel Scivoletti), and the Spirit of Christmas Past (sophomore Keith Mirowitz). Throughout the time Scrooge was visited by the three spirits, he started to recognize the importance of Christmas. He realized he would end his life with a lonely death with no love and no happiness. As the morning came, he awoke in his room with a new found feeling of life. He wanted to make everyone happy, especially to Bob Cratchit and Mrs. Cratchit (played by senior Dayan Graber). All of a sudden he was spreading his wealth, and also spreading joy and happiness throughout London. This production was directed by Mrs. Fitch and the set was done by Mr. Piro and the set design crew.

The King and I

The PHS stage was lit up on March 9th, 10th, and 11th when The King and I was performed. Senior Ashley Pitman and junior Kim Hausler played Anna, a young widow who brought her son to Siam, to teach the Siamese children. In addition, she also taught the king, played by junior Mike Sancilio, how to be less strict and angry than he once was. Senior Dayna Graber played Lady Thiang, head wife. The show also starred seniors Yusylin Hsin as Prince Chaufa Chulalongkorn, Cassie Carelli as Princess Ying Yaowlack and Little Eva, Richard Lurie as Sir Edward, Debra Menter, Murisa Harba and Alexis Lindsay, who have made multiple appearances on the PHS stage. Seniors Diana Nguyen, Tiffany Lee, and Loren Lee made their first and final appearance on the PHS stage. Senior Chris Giarmo, after performing for 3 years, decided to work behind the scenes as the show's fearless stage manager. Mrs. Stevie Rawlings directed the show, her seventh show with Paramus High School. Mr. Mark Donellan, alumnus, conducted the pit for his second year. It was altogether a marvelous and well put-together show, full of unlimited talent.

A Teacher's Tale

Dr. Janice Dime

SUPERINTENDENT

Dr. Janice Dime, our Superintendent of Schools, is responsible for leading our school district into the 21st Century by not only maintaining a comprehensive and challenging educational program for all Paramus students, but also by helping to keep Paramus in the forefront of quality education statewide. She is concerned with the welfare of the students and is always willing to listen and assist them. Dr. Dime can be seen at many school and community-related events and has an encouraging word for those students participating. Dr. Dime was instrumental in establishing an education foundation that provides faculty and students with grants for innovative projects. She has spent a considerable amount of time this year visiting K-12 classes districtwide in an effort to see our educational program in operation firsthand. She congratulates the High School students and staff for all of their success and effort to increase school spirit. Dr. Dime believes in involving students, staff, parents, and community members in planning, decision making, and problem solving. Dr. Dime wishes the Class of 2001 much success in meeting the challenges and opportunities of the future!

PRINCIPAL

Members of the Class of 2001:

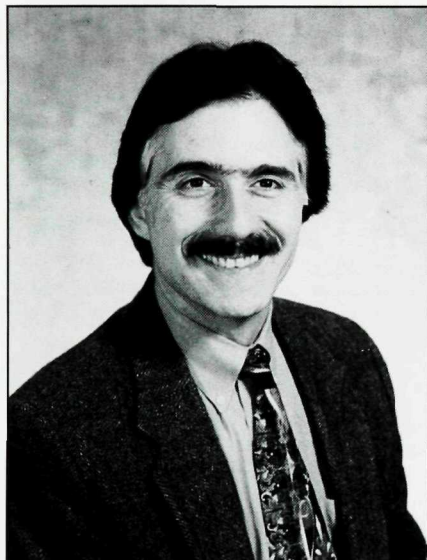

Congratulations on reaching this milestone in your educational careers. Graduating from high school signifies many things. To some it signifies the mastery of a body of knowledge; to others it signifies a passage from one stage of life to the next. I hope that you each look back on your years at Parmus High School with a sense of pride and self-confidence.

When I think of the class of 2001 the word resilient comes to mind. Each of you has demonstrated an ability to make adjustments. During your four years you have had to adjust to a changed time schedule, many new faces on our faculty and more demanding curricular requirements. You have approached each of the four years of changes with a positive, "can do" attitude. This perspective will serve each of you well as the future unfolds. Change, in each of our worlds, is a constant. I am certain that each of you is well prepared to handle the issues of life that will come your way.

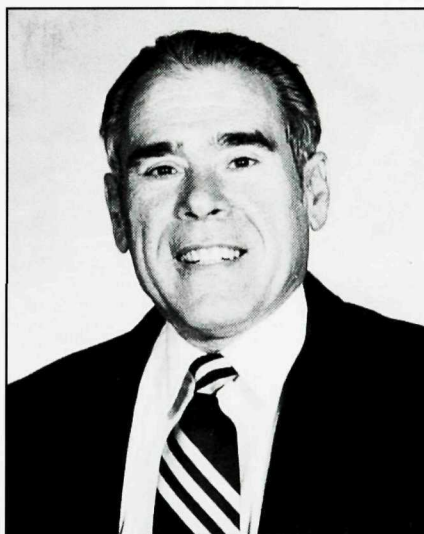

We are proud of each of you and count you as a member of the Parmus High School extended family. When you look through the pages of this book tomorrow, or five, ten or twenty years from now, I believe that your memories of high school will be good ones. Congratulations on a job well done.

Charles V. Khoury, Ed, D.
Principal

Class Of 2001

To Our Daughter

*We used to cuddle you when you fell down
Now we stand proud as you walk by in you cap and gown
As you've grown into a woman of sweetness and maturity
What God given blessing it's been for us to see
We wish you Good Luck in all that comes your way
Just remember we'll always be there for you,
If you should need us someday
As these precious years have past us like seconds just gone by Happiness and sadness fills our hearts, this is why you might see us cry
Love Always & Forever
Mom and Dad*

Ashley,
You're the first to graduate out of us four
We wish you happiness, success and much much more
And though our lives might not be the same as before
You'll always be in our hearts and that's for sure

*Love,
Jaimie, Mallory and Matt*

My Dearest Granddaughter,

It seems like only yesterday I was doing this for your mother
And soon you'll start a new life like no other
Even though times have changed
I say this with wisdom and a smile
Make you life your very own,
But also make it worthwhile

*Love Always,
Nana*

Ashley,
As I've watched you grow through the years
There's been smiles and tears
And as another life's chapter is about to start
I have confidence in you that you'll do great sweetheart,

*Love,
Lisa*

To My Goddaughter,
Always remember in life
True courage and wisdom is in not following
Be your own person and you'll never be uncertain

*Love,
Aunt Joan*

Today your life holds for you endless possibilities. You have built a solid foundation, and you've worked hard for it. Continue to do what is necessary to move forward one day at a time. Write down your dream and tuck it away... entrusting that all things will come at the right time. Keep sight always of what is important in life.

Remember that true happiness and purpose will be found in relationships—in the workplace—and at home.

Live each day open to guidance, and your purpose will unfold before you.

May your future be filled with Health, Happiness, Love, & Acceptance.

K.C.,

Congratulations! You've completed the first major step in your life. And when you look back, as we do, it all seems to have gone by so fast. It seems like yesterday that you were our little boy, who used to sit and daydream of things to come. The time has passed and we have seen you grow into a fine young man. A young man that anyone would be proud of. So, as you leave this part of life behind you, take with you friendships made and values learned. Never be afraid to be your own person. For that is what has made you special. And as you go through life remember always your family stands by your side. Good Luck in all you do.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Dennis,

Be proud of yourself and all that you have achieved because we are very proud of you. Your future, your goals, and your dreams stand before you awaking your dedication, strength, determination, and hard work. You will succeed in all that you do because you are a kind, thoughtful, intelligent, and responsible young man. You have filled our lives with joy, love, and humor. We wish you success, health, happiness, love, and the best of luck in all your future endeavors.
